Play by the Rules?

fair and safe
behaviour in sport
and recreation

Be a good sport

- Treat all participants in your sport as you like to be treated yourself.
- Co-operate with your team-mates, coach and opponents.
- Control your temper. Verbal abuse and sledging are not acceptable behaviours.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their ability, gender or cultural background.

You must feel safe

- playing, at training and practice
- travelling to and from games and training
- with other players, your coach or team personnel

Bad sporting behaviour is unacceptable, and it can be unlawful.

www.playbytherules.net.au provides information and online training on discrimination, harassment and child protection to address inappropriate behaviour in sport. It complements the Australian Sports Commission's Harassment-free Sport Strategy.

If you think that you have been abused, discriminated against or harassed, tell someone about it:

- a friend, colleague or parent
- a club official or contact officer
- your state or national association
- your department of sport and recreation
- your equal opportunity or anti-discrimination body
- the Australian Sports Commission
- your child welfare agency or the police

No-one should

- make you feel unsafe
- ask you to do things that you are not comfortable with
- verbally abuse you or anyone else
- make racist or sexist jokes or comments
- allow offensive pictures or graffiti to be visible
- look at or touch anyone in ways that make them feel uncomfortable
- make uninvited sexual comments that offend, intimidate or humiliate
- discriminate against or harass anyone else
